

JOIN NOW

Edition: U.S. | ASIA

SIGN IN

All Sections

HOME INVESTING IDEAS MAGAZINE MARKET DATA FINANCIAL ADVISORS PENTA BARRON'S NEXT

Search

BARRON'S

Aim higher than low yields.

PIMCO

Learn more

BARRON'S COVER

Pharmacy-Benefit Managers Under Pressure

American Express, Coca-Cola and others team up to try to cut high drug prices. Shares of Express Scripts, CVS, UnitedHealth are at risk.

By Bill Alpert • July 23, 2016 • Comments

High-priced drugs have everyone ticked off this year. And for good reason. While health-care spending in the U.S. is growing faster than the economy, pharmaceutical costs are growing faster still. New treatments for arthritis and cancer certainly merit a premium, but pharmacy bills can't grow unchecked.

A whole industry exists to keep drug bills in check, of course, namely pharmacy-benefit managers, or PBMs. Leaders like Express Scripts Holding and the pharmacy-benefit units of CVS Health and UnitedHealth Group have rung up big profits in recent years while promising to slow the upward trend in drug prices. But the relentless rise raises questions about their effectiveness.

To Read the Full Story, Subscribe or Sign In

GET THE FULL STORY

OUTSMART THE MARKETS

With the world's premier investing publication.

JOIN NOW

MORE FROM BARRON'S

Shell: The Best Big Oil Stock Yields Juicy 6.6%

Royal Dutch Shell's makeover could lift the shares more than 20% in a year—even without a rise in oil prices, even without

The Future of Mutual Funds

As the industry's growth slows, expect the push toward ever-lower expenses to continue.

Brexit Selloff Highlights Strength of U.S. Market

U.S. companies depend on domestic customers, which helps to insulate them from problems abroad.

COMMENTS

Clark Kent
Sign Out

Type your comment here

PUBLISH

Perry White
Yesterday

Influential City executives from both sides of the Brexit debate are coming together to launch a new body that aims to represent the financial industry's interests in the UK's exit from the European Union.

Reply

Lois Lane
Yesterday

The Financial Services Negotiating Forum, which is being headed by a member of Vote Leave lobby group City for Britain and had provisionally been named City United, is in the process of appointing a board of up to 12 well-known names.

Reply

SHOW MORE COMMENTS

BARRON'S

Edition: U.S. | ASIA

JOIN NOW

SIGN IN

CUSTOMER CENTER

Customer Center
Contact Us
Live Help

MEMBERSHIP

Subscribe to Barron's
Activate Your Digital Access
Why Subscribe?
Collage Program

TOOLS

Email Newsletters
Video Center
Watchlist

ALSO FROM BARRON'S

Advertising
Conferences
Reprints

FOLLOW US

DOWNLOAD BARRON'S APPS
Apple iOS Android

Editions: U.S. | ASIA

JOIN NOW

All Sections HOME INVESTING IDEAS MAGAZINE MARKET DATA FINANCIAL ADVISORS PENTA BARRON'S NEXT

Search

BARRON'S

PIMCO Aim higher than low yields. Learn more

BARRON'S COVER

Pharmacy-Benefit Managers Under Pressure

American Express, Coca-Cola and others team up to try to cut high drug prices. Shares of Express Scripts, CVS, UnitedHealth are at risk.

By Bill Alpert • July 23, 2016 • Comments

High-priced drugs have everyone ticked off this year. And for good reason. While health-care spending in the U.S. is growing faster than the economy, pharmaceutical costs are growing faster still. New treatments for arthritis and cancer certainly merit a premium, but pharmacy bills can't grow unchecked.

A whole industry exists to keep drug bills in check, of course, namely pharmacy-benefit managers, or PBMs. Leaders like Express Scripts Holding and the pharmacy-benefit units of CVS Health and UnitedHealth Group have rung up big profits in recent years while promising to slow the upward trend in drug prices. But the relentless rise raises questions about their effectiveness.

To Read the Full Story, Subscribe or Sign In

$12 for 12 Weeks

GET THE FULL STORY

OUTSMART THE MARKETS
With the world's premier investing publication.

JOIN NOW

MORE FROM BARRON'S

Shell: The Best Big Oil Stock Yields Juicy 6.6%

The Future of Mutual Funds

Brexit Selloff Highlights Strength of U.S. Market

COMMENTS

Clark Kent

Sign Out

Type your comment here

PUBLISH

Perry White

Yesterday

Influential City executives from both sides of the Brexit debate are coming together to launch a new body that aims to represent the financial industry's interests in the UK's exit from the European Union.

Reply

Lois Lane

Yesterday

The Financial Services Negotiating Forum, which is being headed by a member of Vote Leave lobby group City for Britain and had provisionally been named City United, is in the process of appointing a board of up to 12 well-known names.

Reply

SHOW MORE COMMENTS

Editions: U.S. | ASIA

JOIN NOW

SIGN IN

CUSTOMER CENTER

Customer Center

Contact Us

Live Help

MEMBERSHIP

Subscribe to Barron's

Activate Your Digital Access

Why Subscribe?

Collage Program

TOOLS

Email Newsletters

Video Center

Watchlist

ALSO FROM BARRON'S

Advertising

Conferences

Reprints

FOLLOW US

DOWNLOAD BARRON'S APPS

Apple iOS

Android

Privacy Policy • Cookie Policy • Copyright Policy • Data Policy • Your Ad Choices • Subscriber Agreement & Terms of Use

Copyright ©2016 Dow Jones & Company, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

JOIN NOW BARRON'S SIGN IN

HOME INVESTING IDEAS MAGAZINE MARKET DATA FINANCIAL ADVISORS PENTA BARRON'S NEXT

PIMCO Aim higher than low yields. PIMCO Learn more

BARRON'S COVER

Pharmacy-Benefit Managers Under Pressure

American Express, Coca-Cola and others team up to try to cut high drug prices. Shares of Express Scripts, CVS, UnitedHealth are at risk.

By Bill Alpert • July 23, 2016 • Comments

Twitter Facebook Email Print A+

High-priced drugs have everyone ticked off this year. And for good reason. While health-care spending in the U.S. is growing faster than the economy, pharmaceutical costs are growing faster still. New treatments for arthritis and cancer certainly merit a premium, but pharmacy bills can't grow unchecked.

A whole industry exists to keep drug bills in check, of course, namely pharmacy-benefit managers, or PBMs. Leaders like Express Scripts Holding and the pharmacy-benefit units of CVS Health and UnitedHealth Group have rung up big profits in recent years while promising to slow the upward trend in drug prices. But

To Read the Full Story, Subscribe or Sign In

$12 for 12 Weeks

GET THE FULL STORY

OUTSMART THE MARKETS

With the world's premier investing publication.

JOIN NOW

MORE FROM BARRON'S

Shell: The Best Big Oil Stock Yields Juicy 6.6%

Royal Dutch Shell's makeover could lift the shares more than 20% in a year—even without a rise in oil prices.

The Future of Mutual Funds

Royal Dutch Shell's makeover could lift the shares more than 20% in a year—even without a rise in oil prices.

Brexit Selloff Highlights Strength of U.S. Market

US companies depend on domestic customers, which helps to insulate them from problems abroad.

ADVERTISEMENT

ENGAGEMENT IS LIVE.

Understand and act on customer needs live and in the moment. Learn more

SAP

COMMENTS

Clark Kent Sign Out

Type your comment here

PUBLISH

Perry White Yesterday

Influential City executives from both sides of the Brexit debate are coming together to launch a new body that aims to represent the financial industry's interests in the UK's exit from the European Union.

Reply

Lois Lane Yesterday

The Financial Services Negotiating Forum, which is being headed by a member of Vote Leave lobby group City for Britain and had provisionally been named City United, is in the process of appointing a board of up to 12 well-known names.

Reply

SHOW MORE COMMENTS

BARRON'S JOIN NOW SIGN IN

Menu Item 1
Menu Item 2
Menu Item 3

FOLLOW US Twitter Facebook LinkedIn DOWNLOAD BARRON'S APPS Apple iOS Android

Copyright ©2016 Dow Jones & Company, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

SIGN INJOIN NOW

BARRON'S COVER

Pharmacy-Benefit Managers Under Pressure

American Express, Coca-Cola and others team up to try to cut high drug prices. Shares of Express Scripts, CVS, UnitedHealth are at risk.

By Bill Alpert

July 23, 2016

12

High-priced drugs have everyone ticked off this year. And for good reason. While health-care spending in the U.S. is growing faster than the economy, pharmaceutical costs are growing faster still. New treatments for arthritis and cancer certainly merit a premium, but pharmacy bills can't grow unchecked.

A whole industry exists to keep drug bills in check, of course, namely pharmacy-benefit managers, or PBMs. Leaders like Express Scripts Holding and the pharmacy-benefit units of CVS Health and UnitedHealth Group have rung up big profits in recent years while promising to slow the upward trend in drug prices. But the relentless rise raises questions about their effectiveness.

To Read the Full Story, Subscribe or Sign In

$12 for 12 Weeks

GET THE FULL STORY

OUTSMART THE MARKETS

With the world's premier investing publication.

JOIN NOW

MORE FROM BARRON'S

Shell: The Best Big Oil Stock Yields Juicy 6.6%

The Future of Mutual Funds

Brexit Selloff Highlights Strength of U.S. Market

COMMENTS

Clark Kent

Sign Out

Type your comment here

PUBLISH

Perry White

Yesterday

Influential City executives from both sides of the Brexit debate are coming together to launch a new body that aims to represent the financial industry's interests in the UK's exit from the European Union.

Reply

Lois Lane

Yesterday

The Financial Services Negotiating Forum, which is being headed by a member of Vote Leave lobby group City for Britain and had provisionally been named City United, is in the process of appointing a board of up to 12 well-known names.

ReplySHOW MORE COMMENTS